

Sampling the everyday public transportation experience

Use this questionnaire to describe your daily commute experience on a train, metro, or bus. You will be reporting your experience twice; first, at the beginning of your journey and second, at the end of your journey. Make sure you respond to each question truthfully and in reference to your momentary feelings and experience.

Time _____

I am at the beginning of my journey

I am at the end of my journey

I am sitting _____ (Seat location _____)

I am standing _____

At this moment I feel _____

At this moment I think _____

The main activity I was doing just now was _____

How would you rate your overall level of comfort just now?

slightly comfortable neutral very comfortable
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

What was the reason for your rating? _____

What is the one thing that stands out at this moment in journey journey?
